This book is dedicated to the future youth of Central.

May they attain their goals
as have we.

Doorways leading not into a building
 but a future Shared
 not so much with friends as with unknown acquaintances
 New to some strange awesome perhaps or familiar reminiscent or repetitious.

OCTOBER 5TH

My mind
 drug from the sleepiness of summer
 let me think!
 give me time!
 let me breath in this protected little world
 let me know myself
 and the things I see I will become for a day or
 If I choose longer.

NOVEMBER 15TH

Fall into winter growing
An expansion of the mind.
Excited cries cheering . . .
laughter . . .
Echo in the depths
of my imagination.

DECEMBER 20th

Freedom
gentle flakes of sanity drifting
in suspended animation retracing lost emotions
an extension of the soul.

JANUARY 17TH

Drawing back reality
living not day to day
but weekend to week end drudging
oblivious to our tasks.

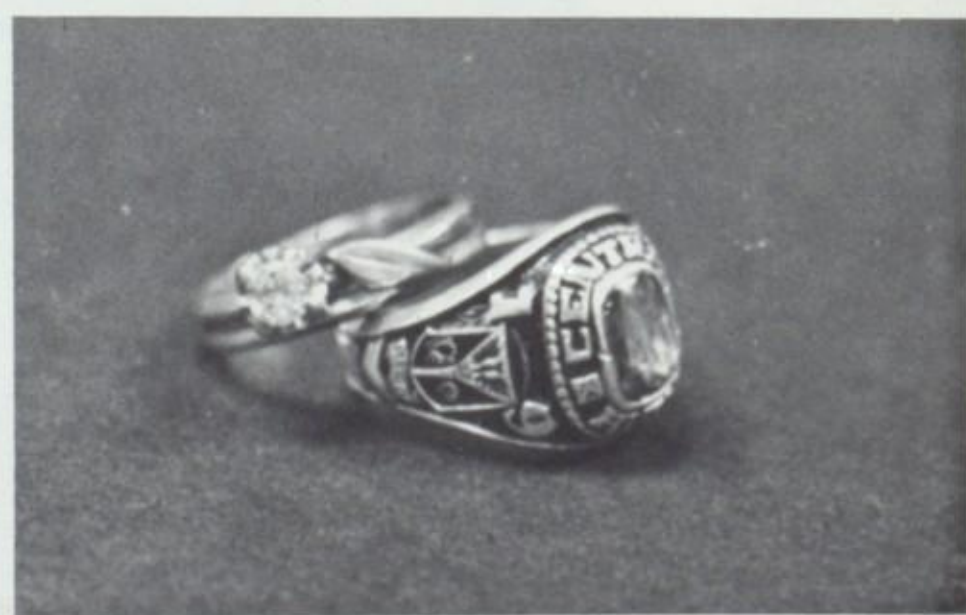

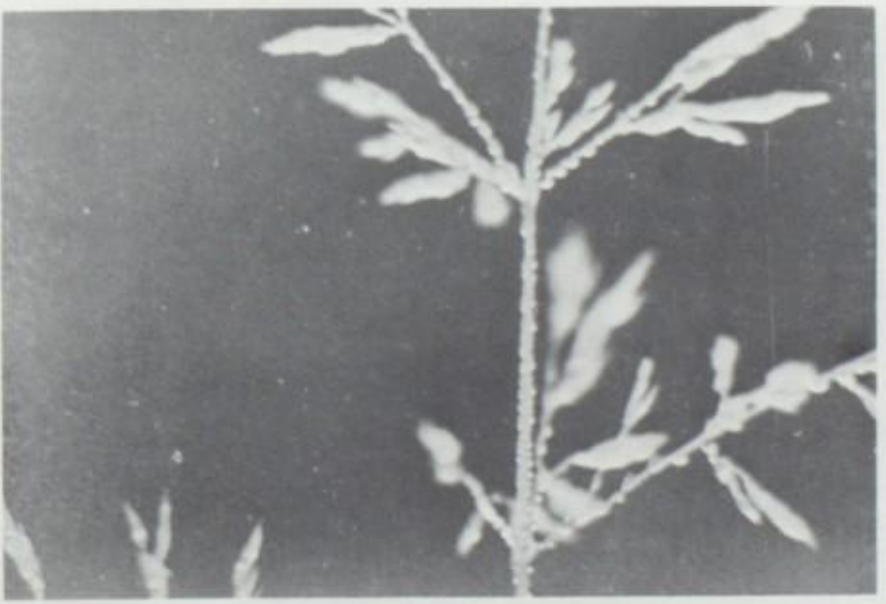

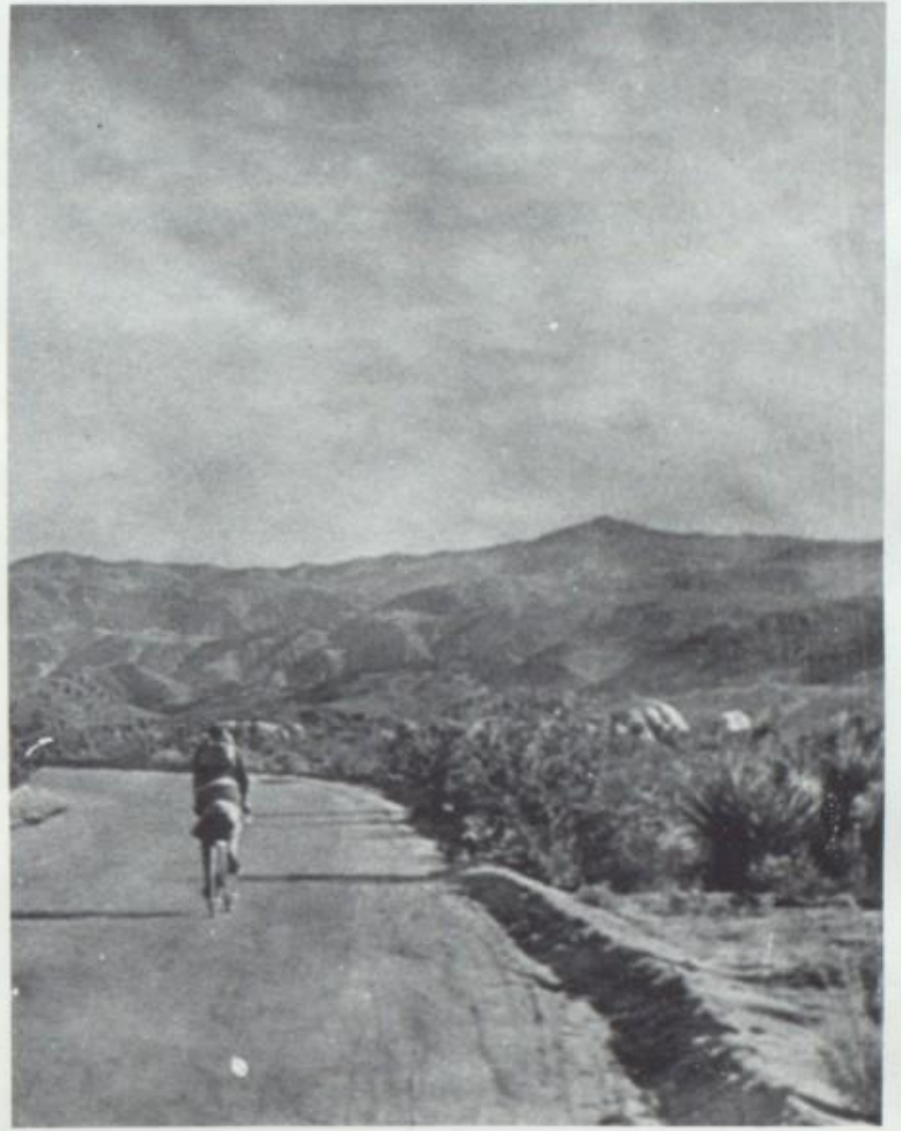

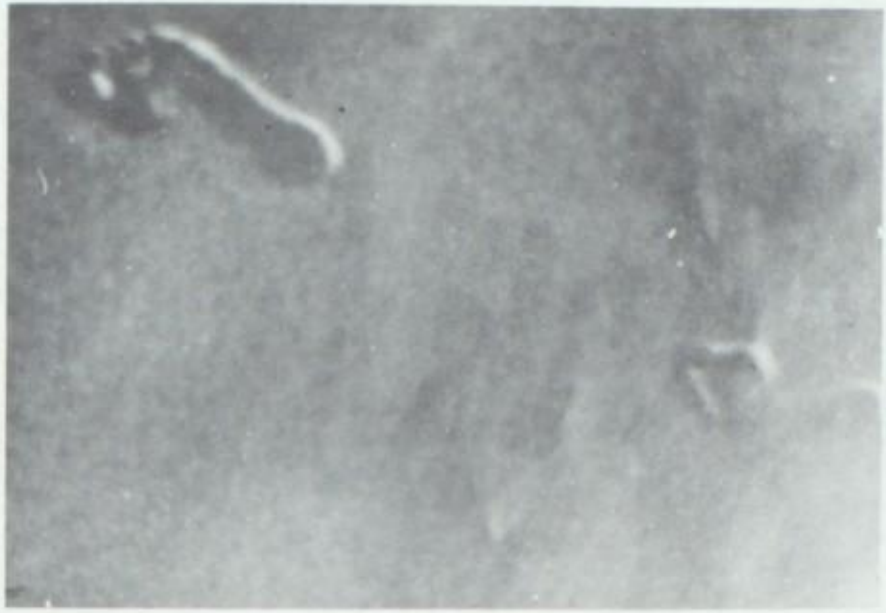

FEBRUARY 14TH

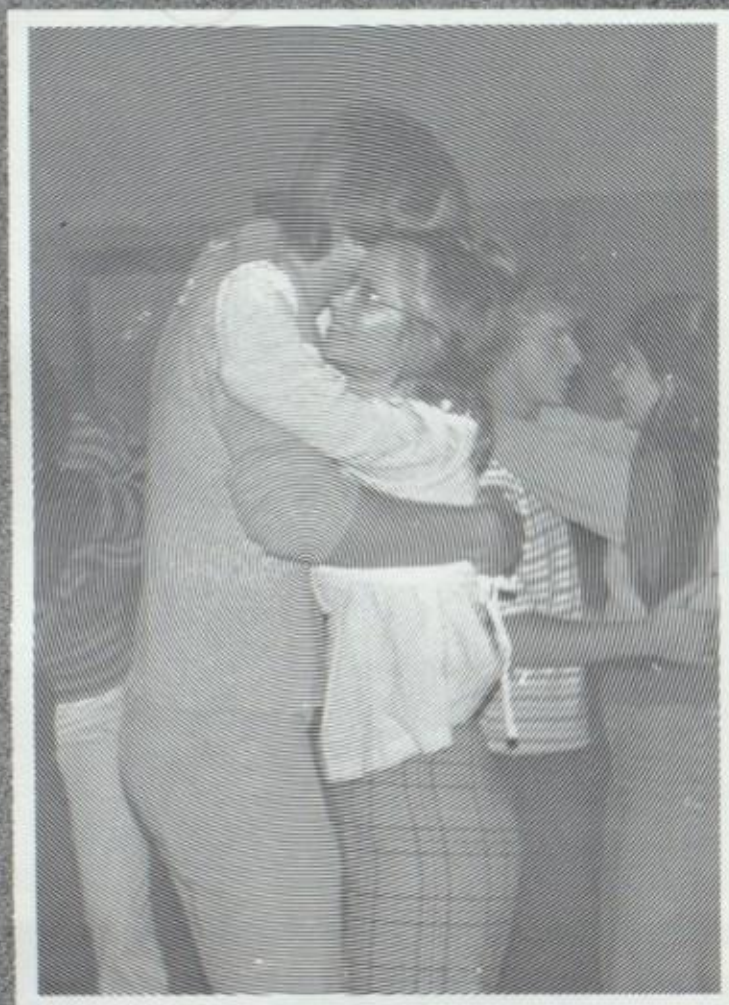

Holding close . . .
touching today
with the knowledge of caring.
concretion . . .
of two reaching into tomorrow in hope of eternity.

MARCH 26TH

Breaking
from winter's silence crying with the freshness . . .
life . . .
of anticipation.

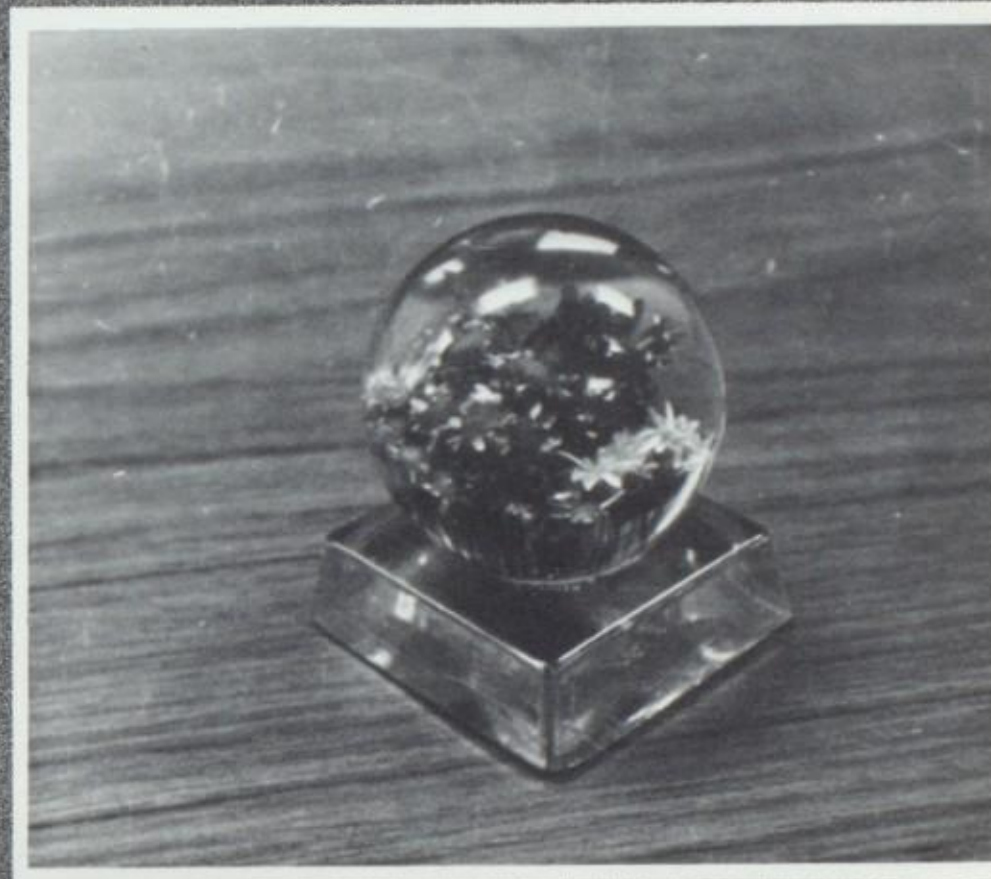

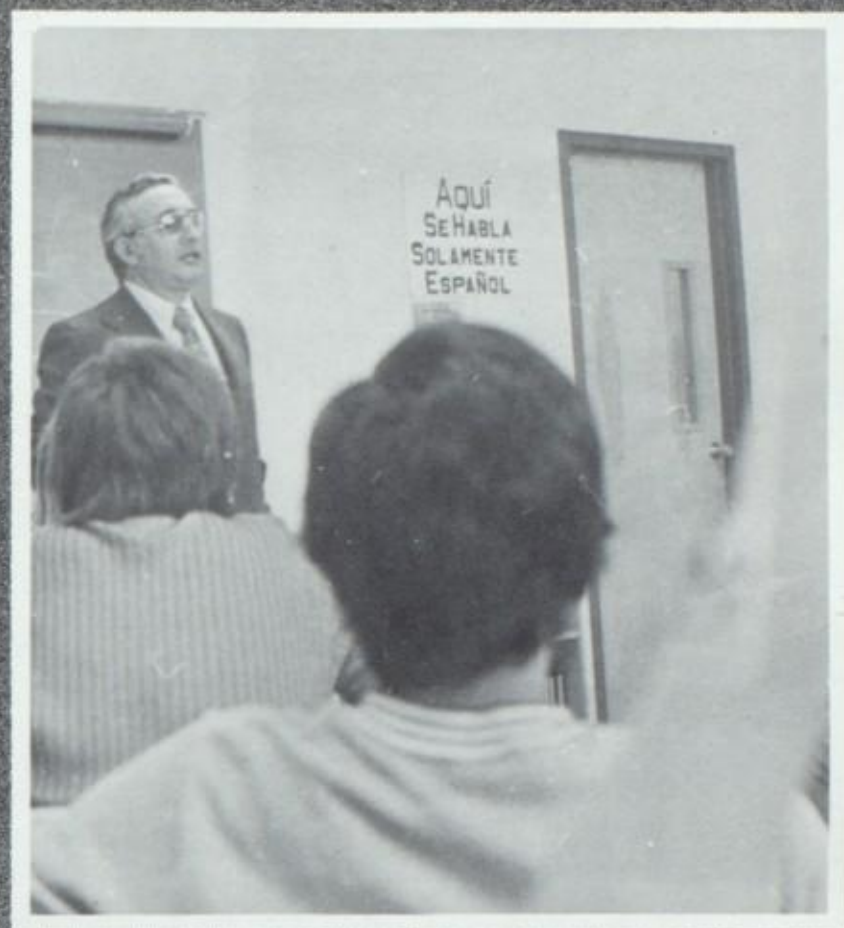

APRIL 11TH

Cycles . . .
 fast faster unable to grasp physical existence.
 holding . . .
 ever passing memories.

MAY 9TH

RECEDING

the year passed me by each moment ideal by retrospect of contrast

JUNE 6TH

Realization . . .
I've learned.
grown.
I'm more of me. influenced not by multitudes
but by individuals.
my abstractions became concrete emotions and I have found . . .
there's a long time between September and June.

The elected members of Girls' Cabinet act as hostesses of Central at all school functions as well as plan and co-ordinate the winter sports week activities. Their duties branch outside of school in working for the Heart Fund Drive, Easter lilies program and various other community programs.

Central High's 1975 Congress

Congress acts as a communication link between the student body and our student government. It consists of representatives from each club. They meet regularly and play an active part around our school.

This is an excellent opportunity for Wildcats to get an active start in political action, as well as basic background in parliamentary procedure.

This year's Congress president was Lawrence Segura, better known as "Lumpy". Other officers were as follows:

President
Vice-president
Secretary
Sgt. at Arms
Parliamentarian

Lawrence [Lumpy] Segura
Dan Carleo
Hermania Vigil
Judy Pearson

A WISH FOR LEADERS

I sincerely wish you will have the experience of thinking up a new idea, planning it, organizing it, and following it to completion, and then have it be magnificently successful. I also hope you go through the same process and have something "bomb-out".

I wish you could know how it feels to "run with all your heart and lose... horribly".

I wish that you could achieve some great good for mankind, but nobody but you know about it.

I wish you could find something so worthwhile that you deem it worthy of investing your life in it.

I hope you become frustrated and challenged enough to begin to push back the very barriers of your own personal limitations.

I hope you make a stupid mistake and get caught redhanded and are big enough to say those magic words: "I was wrong".

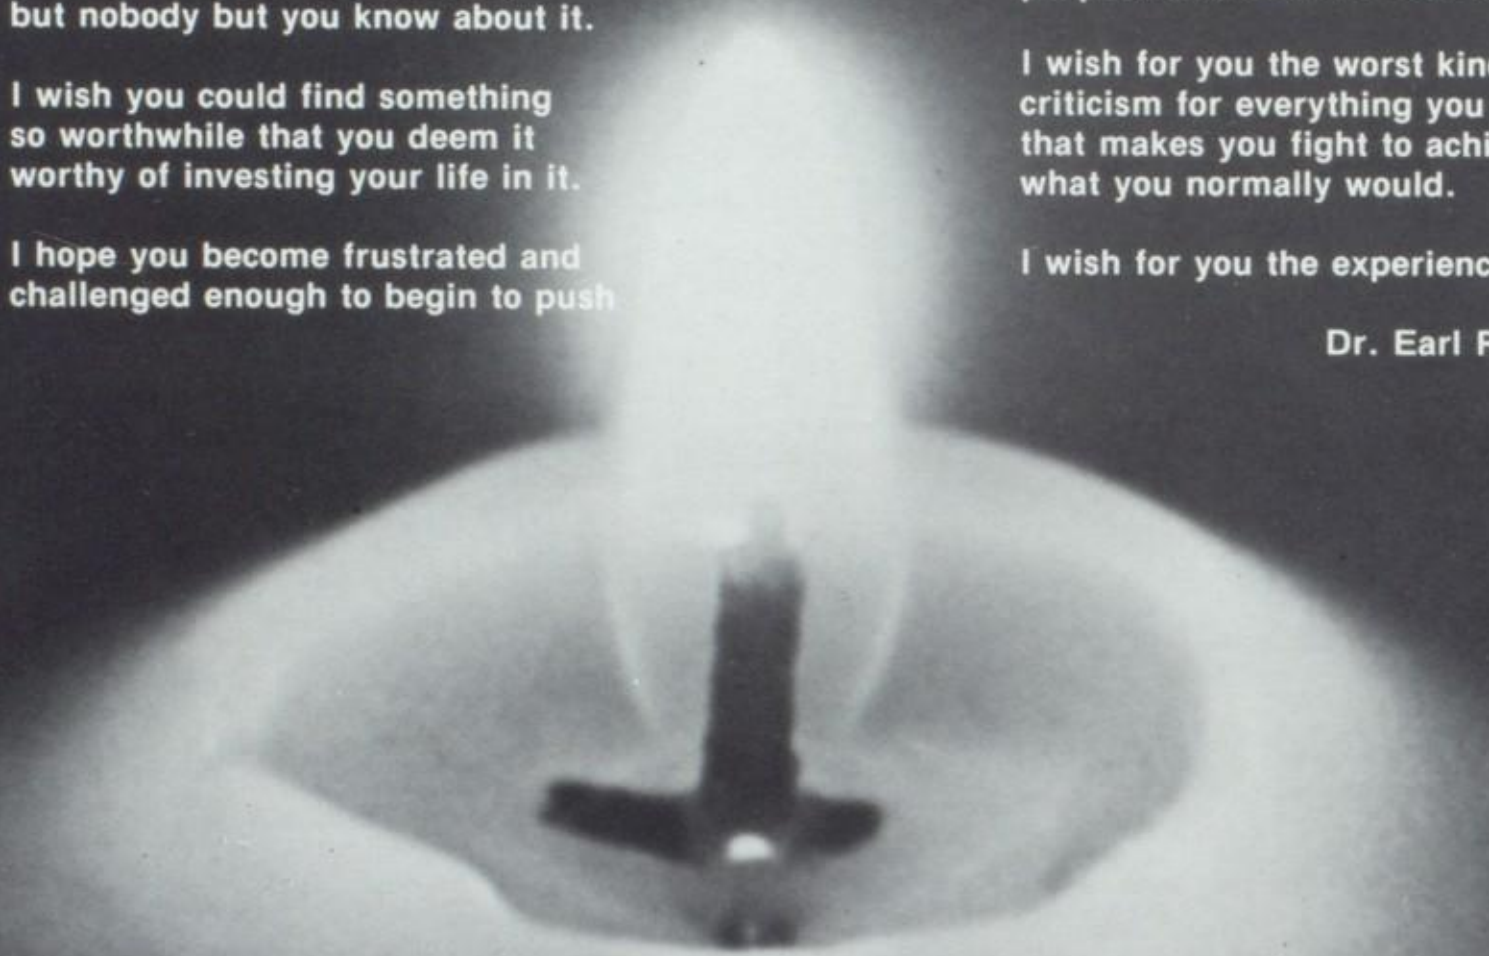

I hope you give so much of yourself that some days you wonder if it's all worth the effort.

I wish for you a magnificent obsession that will give you reason for living and purpose and direction and life.

I wish for you the worst kind of criticism for everything you do, because that makes you fight to achieve beyond what you normally would.

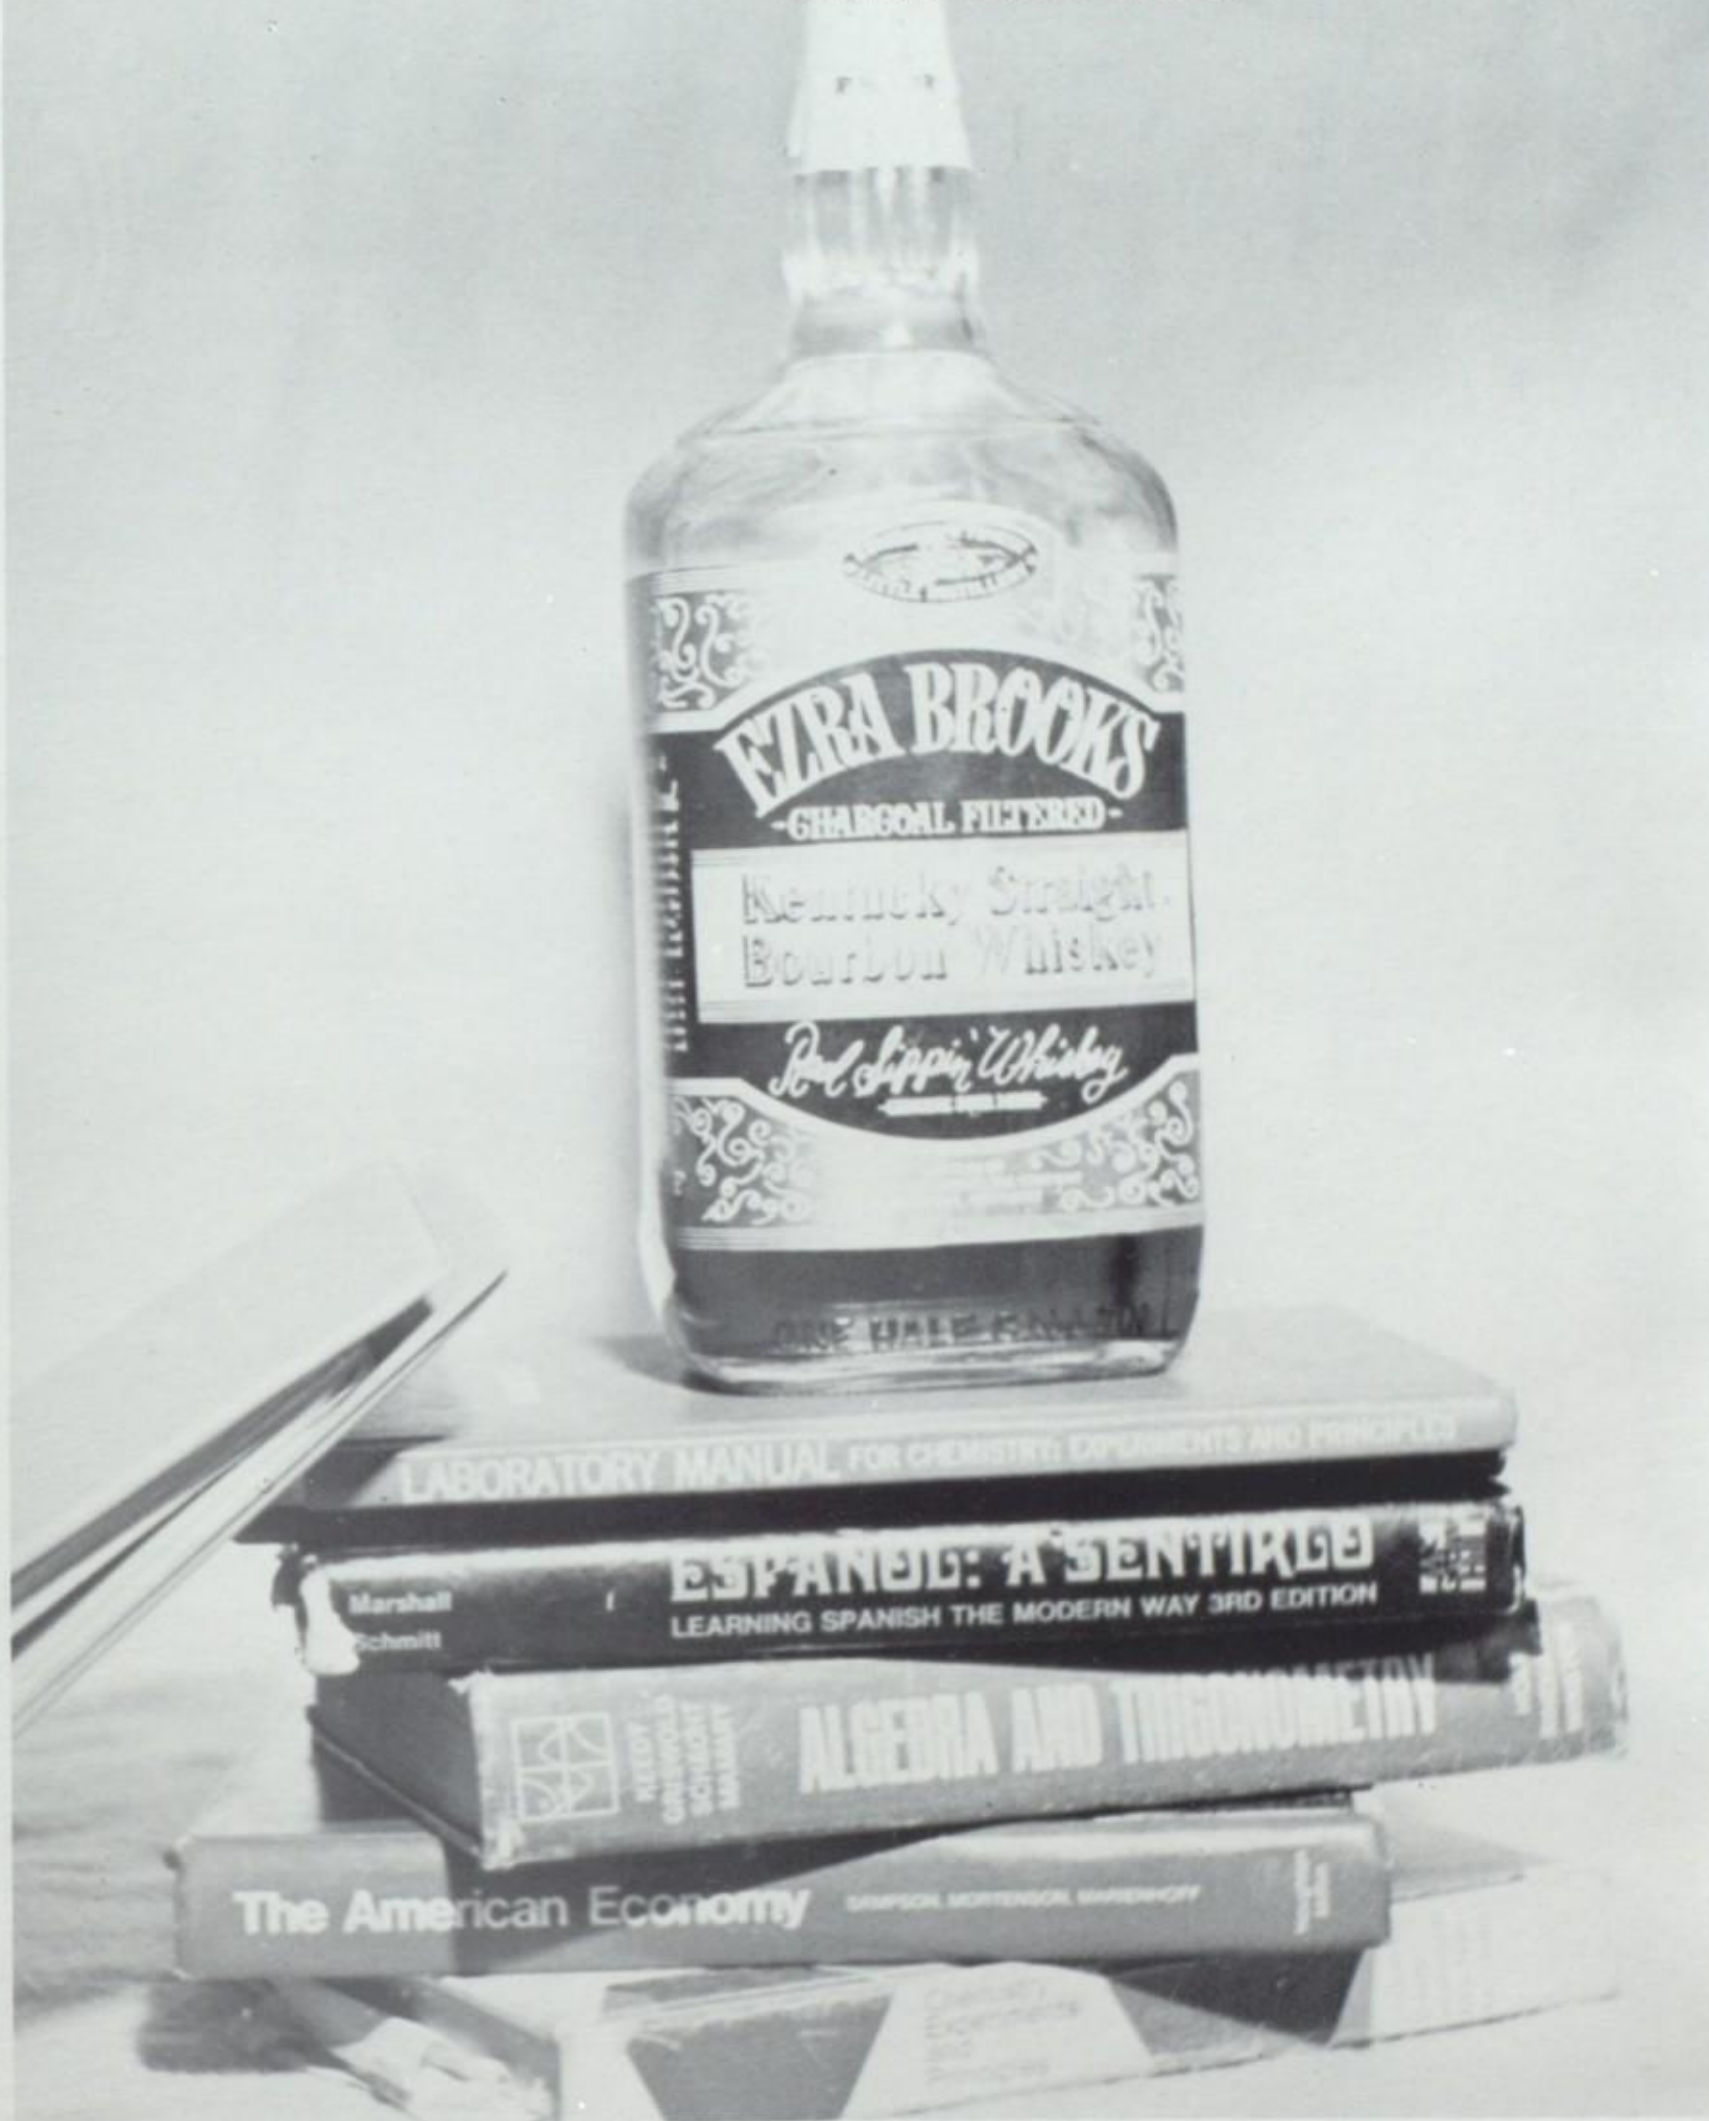

I wish for you the experience of leadership.

Dr. Earl Reum

I am not afraid of tomorrow, for I have seen yesterday and I love today.

A black and white photograph of three students sitting on stone steps outdoors. On the left is a young woman with dark, wavy hair, wearing a light-colored short-sleeved button-down shirt under a dark, short-sleeved vest or dress. She is smiling and looking towards the camera. In the center is a young man with dark, wavy hair, wearing a light-colored short-sleeved button-down shirt and dark trousers with a dark belt. He is smiling and looking towards the camera. On the right is a young woman with dark, wavy hair, wearing a light-colored long-sleeved shirt with a dark vest over it. She is smiling and looking towards the camera. The background shows a stone wall and some foliage.

Damnation the perfume you're wearing is INTOXIC

Leader of the pack

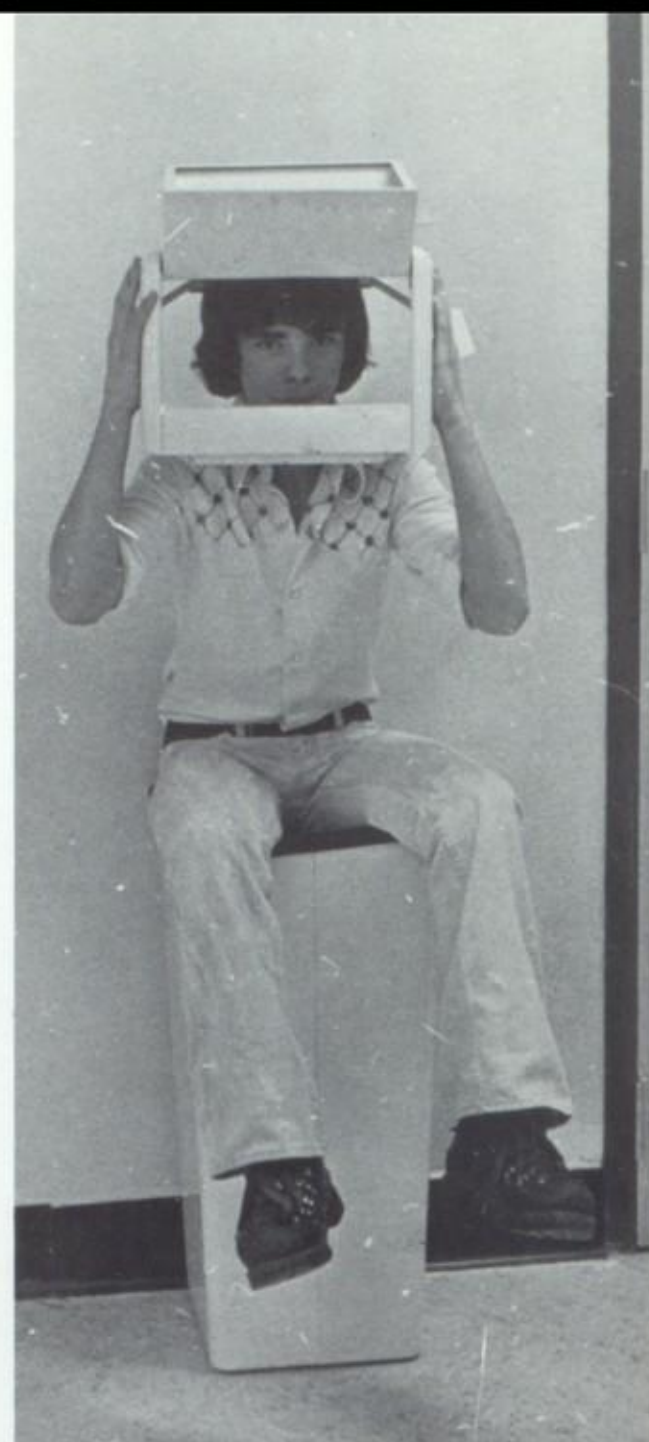

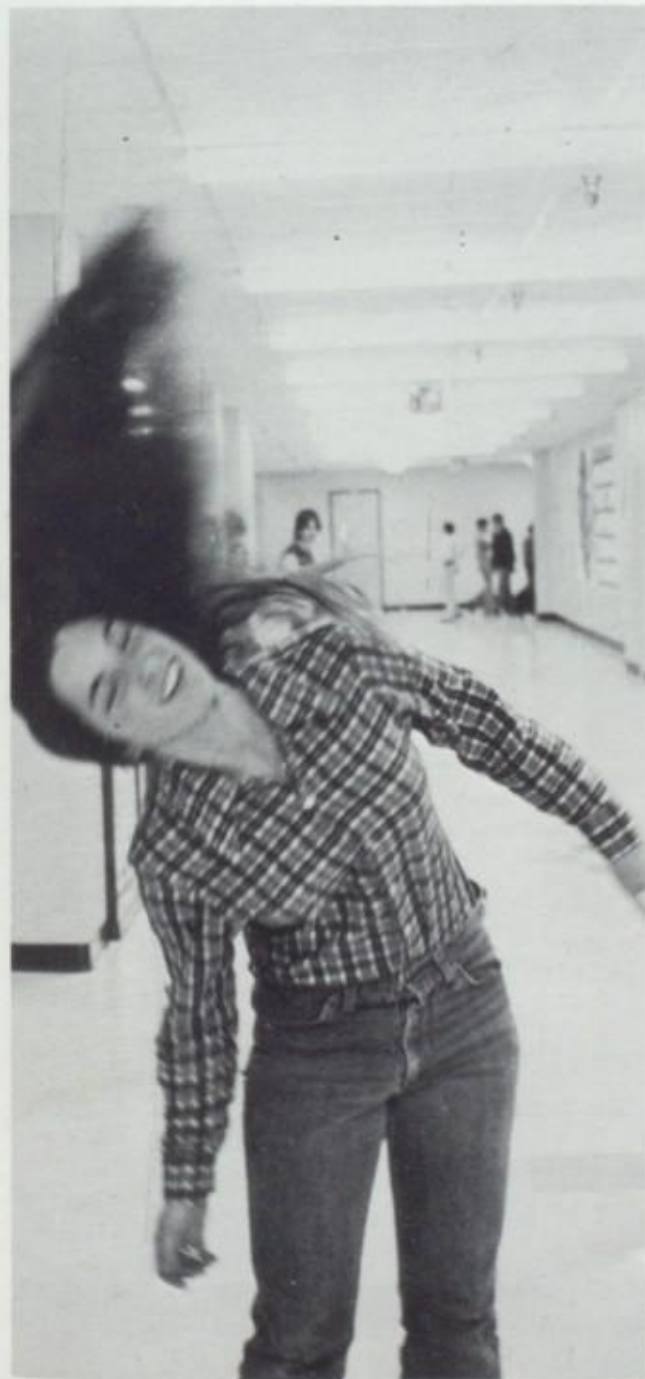

My dear! Has anyone ever told you that you have a voice of a Blue Jay and legs of a FROG.

Zzzzzzzzz . . . !

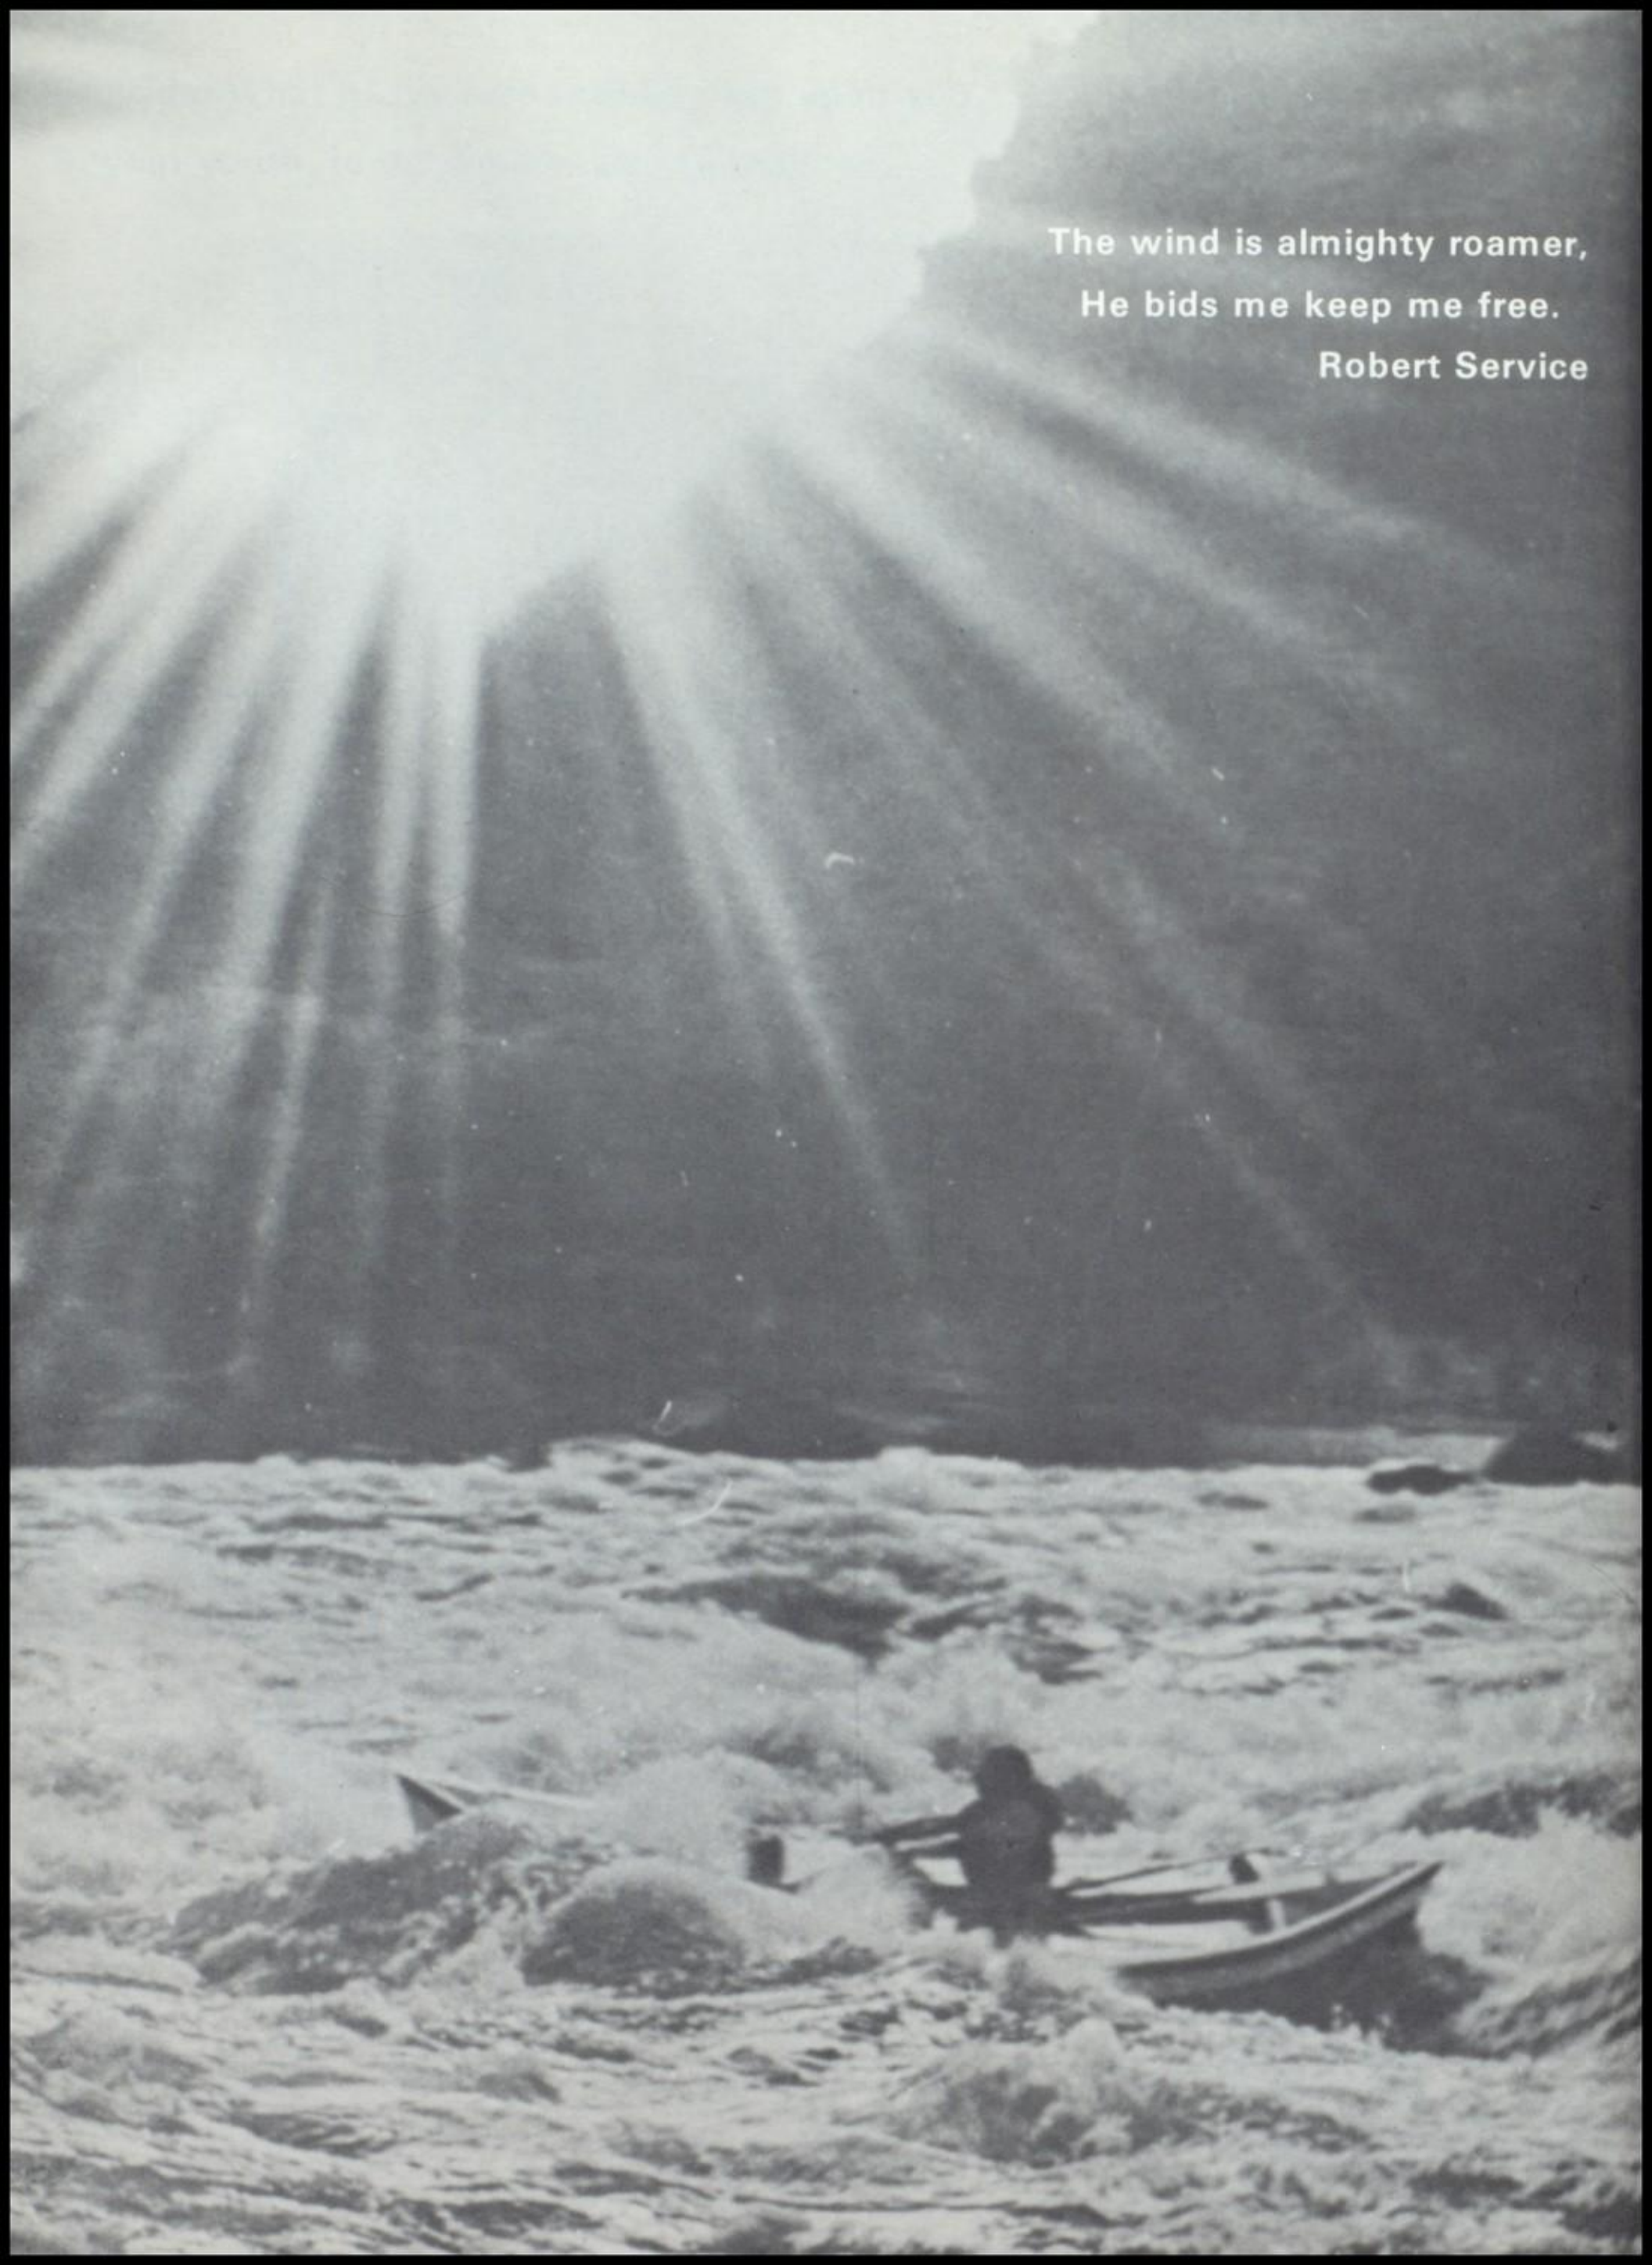

Consider what heavy responsibility lies upon you in your youth, to determine, among realities,

By what you will be delighted,
and among imaginations,
by whose you will be led.

Ruskin

The wind is almighty roamer,
He bids me keep me free.

The Winners

Those only win who reach the gate
Through surf and storm and bitter gale,
Through pain and loneliness and hate,
Through all the sullen thrusts of Fate,
With battered prow and shattered sail,
Who look on life and death as one,
Until the closing race is run.

Those only win who see the goal
Beyond the baffling fog and mist,
Whose names are written on the scroll
Of those who stand with unbowed soul
Amid the thin, immortal list,
Who drive through fear and doubt and sin
Until the darkness closes in.

This no life for soul or heart
That breaks or falters at defeat;
The weak are beaten at the start,
And only those who play their part
May face the rough and rocky beat;
The road is lone-the dream is gone-
The fighting heart still carries on.

the time when . . .

Aw, man, this is really a drag.

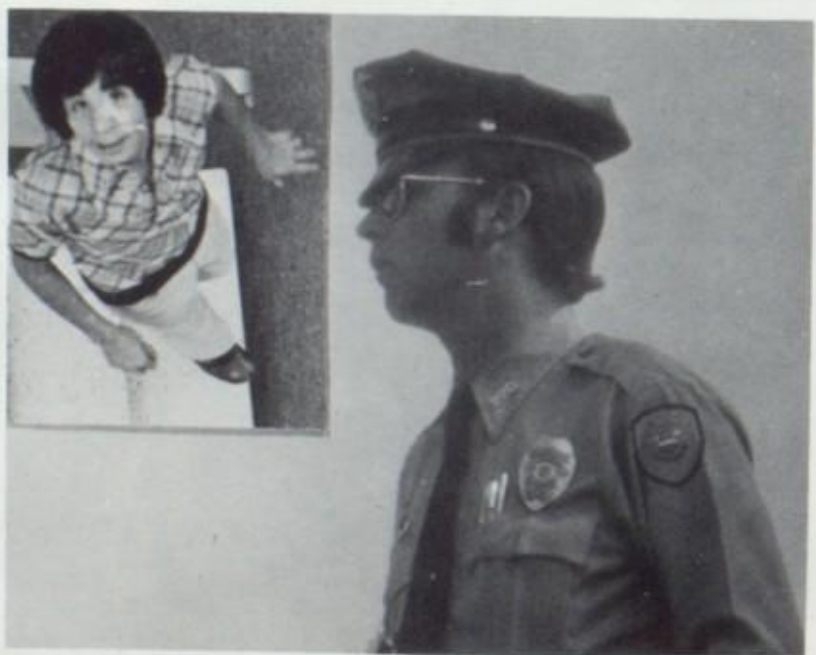

Smile, you're on candid camera.

As I waz saying, you know you guys, this is the life, I feel like I'm in kindergarten again.

Set me free, 'cause Lord here I come!

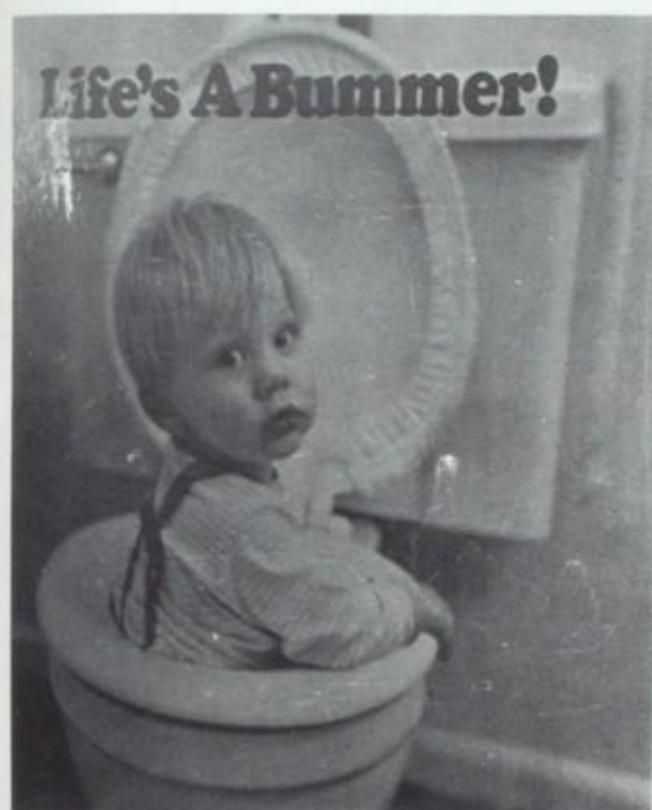

No, officer, I'm not gonna jump.

Wipeout! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ho! Ho! Hee! Hee!

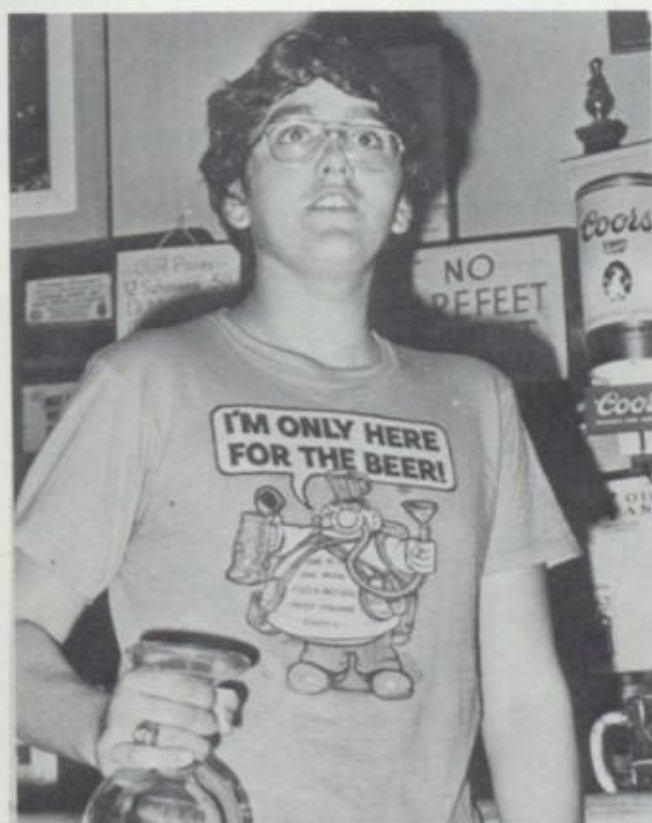

How much you wanna bet they can't catch us.

Sez who?

Gee, all this work and I bet the sophomore class will take first place.

No, Armand, how many times do we have to tell you. It's bottoms up.

Pst ... Pst ... This is the plan, Mary, we'll wait until they're up the hill; then we'll push them down, roll 'em up and make a big snow man outta' them.

They're now memories of a year past!

To Central's Youth:

Annual staff has contributed to my life moments I will long cherish. Never before have I worked with a group of people more devoted to the creation of the unusual and the preservation of humor. It isn't often that one can ask for perfection and reach its border; I feel we have succeeded. If this book can recall one happy memory for each of its holders and uphold one ideal of the relevance of youth, then we have attained our goal. I can only hope that this book will mean as much to you as partaking in its creation has to me.

I give my thanks to the numerous individuals who make the WILDCAT what it is, not only the staff, Mr. Cornelison, representative of Yearbook House, and Mr. Robert Trevithick, but to all the people that make up Central's family. Special thanks to Lynnda Merrill and John Salas. Without these two beautiful people the '75 WILDCAT would not exist. Thank you for the opportunity to be a part of it all.

Happy memories!

Linda Kovac

John R. Salas
Adviser

The job of editor takes determination and desire. However there are many people who helped me along the way and I would like to thank them. First of all, the judges and all others who helped me to obtain this position. It has been a rewarding experience as well as an educational one. There were times when disagreement and hard labor seemed endless, but this was the result of an involved staff. People that cared and had PRIDE in everything they did. The obstacles we overcame created a strong UNITY between members of the staff and I can honestly say that I have never worked with a more unique group of people. Also a special thanks to the photographers who gave so much of their time and turned out a fantastic amount of work. There are two others whom I have appreciation for. My co-editor, Linda Kovac and advisor, Mr. Salas. Another thank-you goes to my parents for their inspiration and words of advice. My last thank you goes to the student body for all of the memories that we were able to capture in the 1975 WILDCAT.

Sincerely Yours,

Lynnda Merrill

Vaudeville

The theme for this year's Vaudeville was "Through the Ages". Directors were Miss Andrea Rosenthal and Mrs. Linda Muller. It was their first year working with Vaudeville and they did a sensational job along with the enthusiasm and determination of all those students involved. Moreover, the cast and directors succeeded in making this year's show the best in all of its many years.

Fellowship of Christian Wildcats

The purpose Fellowship of Christian Wildcats is to promote love and understanding at Central High through Christ, and to have a "sharing group" which helps one another to grow in faith. During the meetings the group shared faith and prayer in support of one another and others.

Some of their activities this year included setting up a booth at the Winter Sports Carnival in which free coffee or tea was offered to weary carnival goers, displaying posters in the hall depicting such things as: "Smile, God Loves You," "Joy", "P.T.L." The group also sponsored a special project with the main purpose of helping others.

German Club

German Club is another one of Central's clubs which promotes the culture of another country in order to enrich our lives. This club has brought out the essence of Germany to many native Germans by singing German Christmas Carols around town during the Christmas season. They also sung at local nursing homes. The flavor of Germany was brought to the school by sponsoring a Potluck Supper in which each member made his own German dish.

German Club is open to anyone in the student body, and this year there are twenty active members.

National Honor Society is composed of a select group of students chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service. In order to be nominated to the organization, a student must maintain a 3.2 average as a junior and a 3.0 average as a senior, as well as be accepted by ten per cent of the voting faculty.

Among various activities, the students promote school spirit by sponsoring pep dances, serve as Heart Fund volunteers, coordinate and participate in "Week of the Young Child" and donate a food basket to a needy family during the holiday season.

Chess Club

The Chess Club is a group of students who love to play chess. Their sponsor, Mr. Frank Beaty arranges matches with the schools which they usually play at the Business Men's Club.

By December their record was three wins and one loss. The chess team which won the tourney for the past three years will be given a trophy. Central has won the tournament once this year and East two years. It appears that Central has the brain power to tie it up this year.

KKK

The Kazoo Klux Klan is made up of twelve of Central's most elite rowdies. This dirty dozen terrorize the halls and haunt the assemblies, belting ear-stinging tunes on their vile little instruments. These Klansmen, dressed in their best dirt stained fatigues and sweat soaked T-shirts, try their best to influence underclassmen by showing them exactly what they should NOT do in order to become respectable seniors.

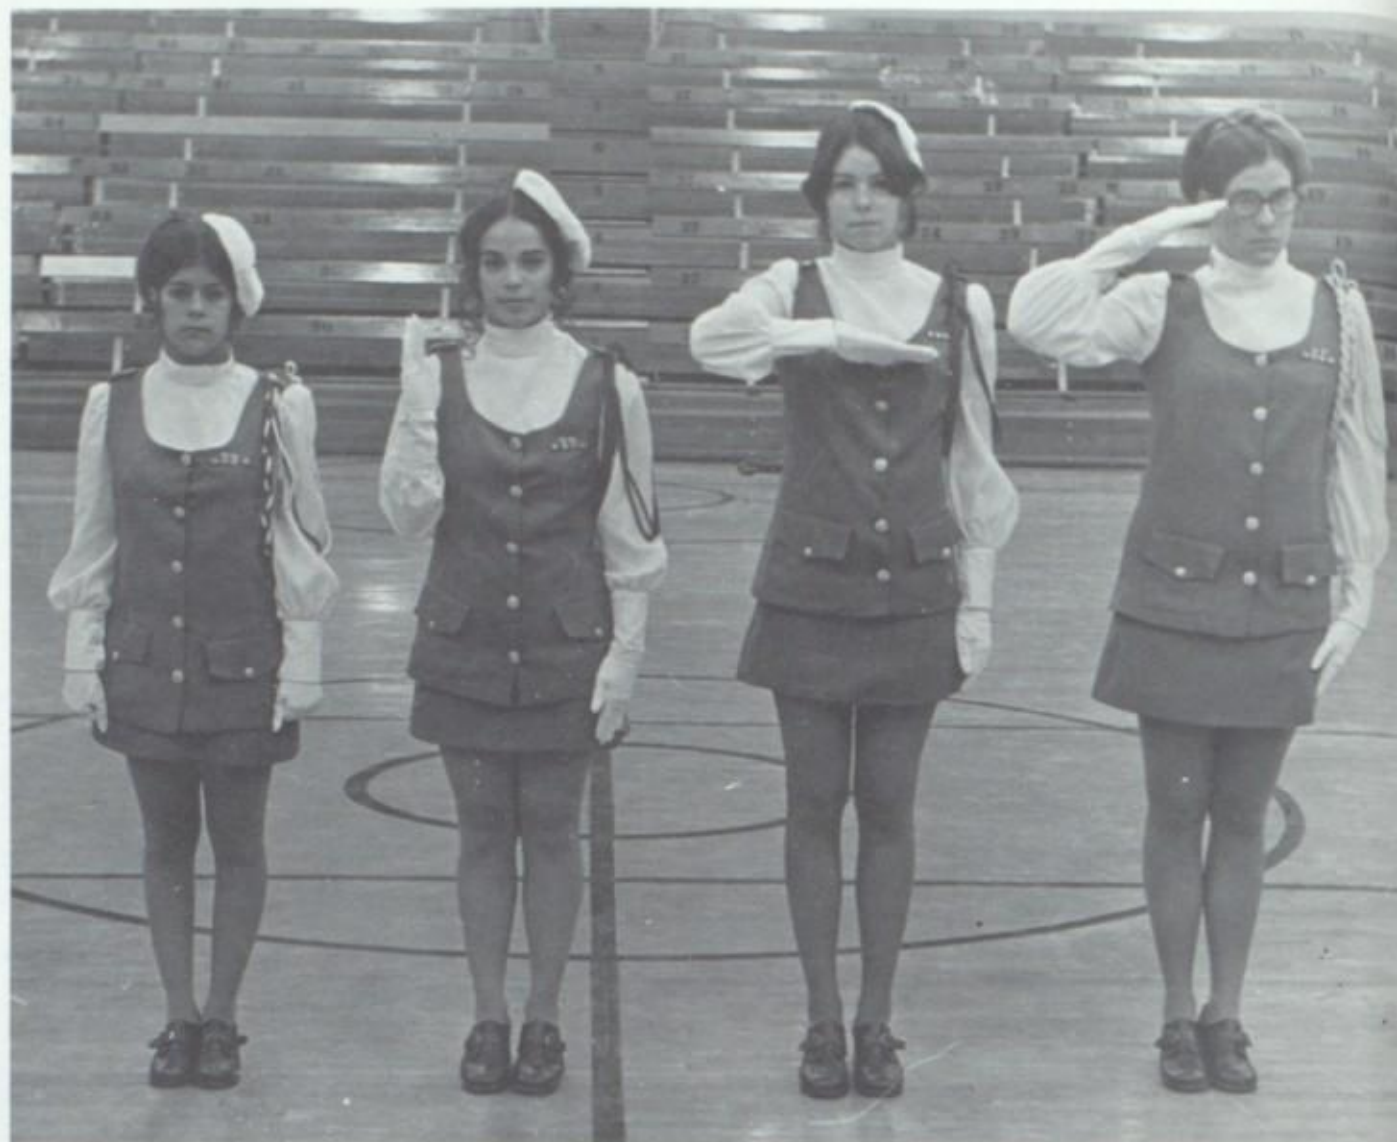

This year KKK is carrying on the tradition started by last year's group of intellectual psychopaths. To be eligible for this cute little group you must be: [1] a senior; [2] have a lot of school spirit; [3] have no musical talent; [4] be a sloppy dresser, and [5] smart enough to flunk a freshmen achievement test.

ROTC Sponsors

ROTC Sponsors is a precision drill team composed of junior and senior girls who maintain a 3.00 scholastic grade average. During the school year they promote school spirit at games and assemblies, as well as represent Central in the SCSC Drill Meet, State Drill Meet and various summer parades.

R.O.T.C.

ROTC has been offered to the students of Central High School since 1938. The letters ROTC mean reserve officers training corps of which there are two divisions, the junior division [high school] and the senior division [university and college].

The objectives of ROTC are to develop leadership, instill discipline, develop good citizenship, teach elementary military subjects and to make the cadet aware of the role that the U.S. Army plays in national affairs.

ROTC is an elected subject and a cadet can earn one credit if he successfully completes one year of instruction.

ROTC also sponsors the Rifle Team, Drill Team and Color Guard. It is offered to both boys and girls.

Women! Not in this man's army!

You've come a long way, baby!

Look! One more girl scout joke and I'll break your arm!

I hope I get back to the room before I'm counted AWOL.

The Central High Photographers

Scott Fouts Sophomore

In addition to maintaining studies, the task of a Central High yearbook photographer consists of many long and tedious hours of darkroom work. Section editors make photo assignments; the photographer must then meet each assignment. These assignments are made at various times: before, during, after school and sometimes on weekends. Thus a photographer is always on call. In addition to taking pictures, the photographer must process the film, make contact sheets, and print the photos to size of layouts.

Photographers work under constant pressure. Photos must be printed before deadlines. Sometimes there is a need for re-taking pictures. Many times photographers must take on-the-spot pictures; all this, coupled with section editors who demand certain perfections from a photographer make a photographer's job a difficult one.

A school year completed;
memories linger . . .
and we await—
the beginning of another year.

We leave: part of ourselves
We take: part of each other,
pride, knowledge,
a bit of youth,
pictures.

A fraction of what we knew Are we anything without the failed tests football games term papers and saturday nights?

Oh yes...

All these are etched clearly in the recess
Of the mind.

There was a Youth went forth every day,
And the first object he took'd upon, that object he became,
And that object became part of him for the day or a certain part of the day.

Or for many years or stretching cycles of years.

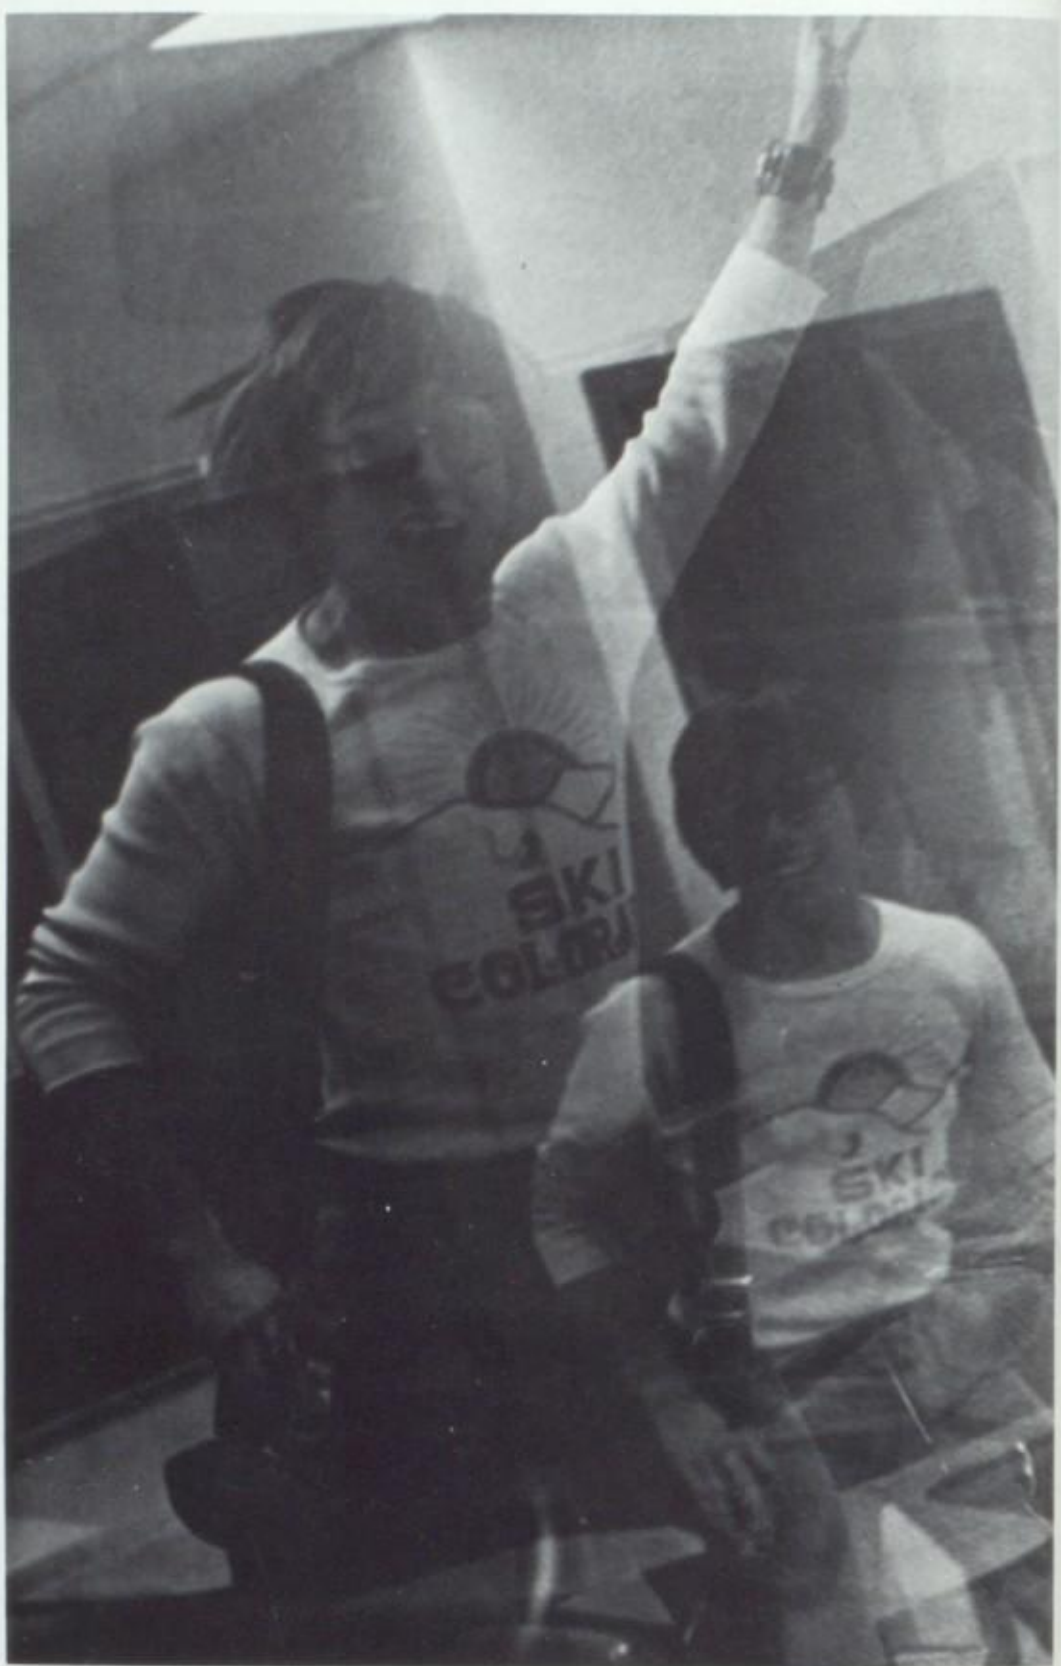

Walt Whitman

Striving to be like others: accepted,
Yet reaching for and sometimes grasping our own identity,
Seeing and understanding clearly, then suddenly blurred into a haze.

We are lost in our own reflections.

J.S.M.

The early lilacs became part of this Youth
And the old drunkard staggering home from the outhouse of
The tavern whence he had lately risen,
And the schoolmistress that pass'd on her way to school,
And the friendly boys that pass'd and the quarrelsome boys,
And the lily and fresh cheek'd girls, and the barefoot Negro Boy and girl,
And all the changes of city and country wherever he went.

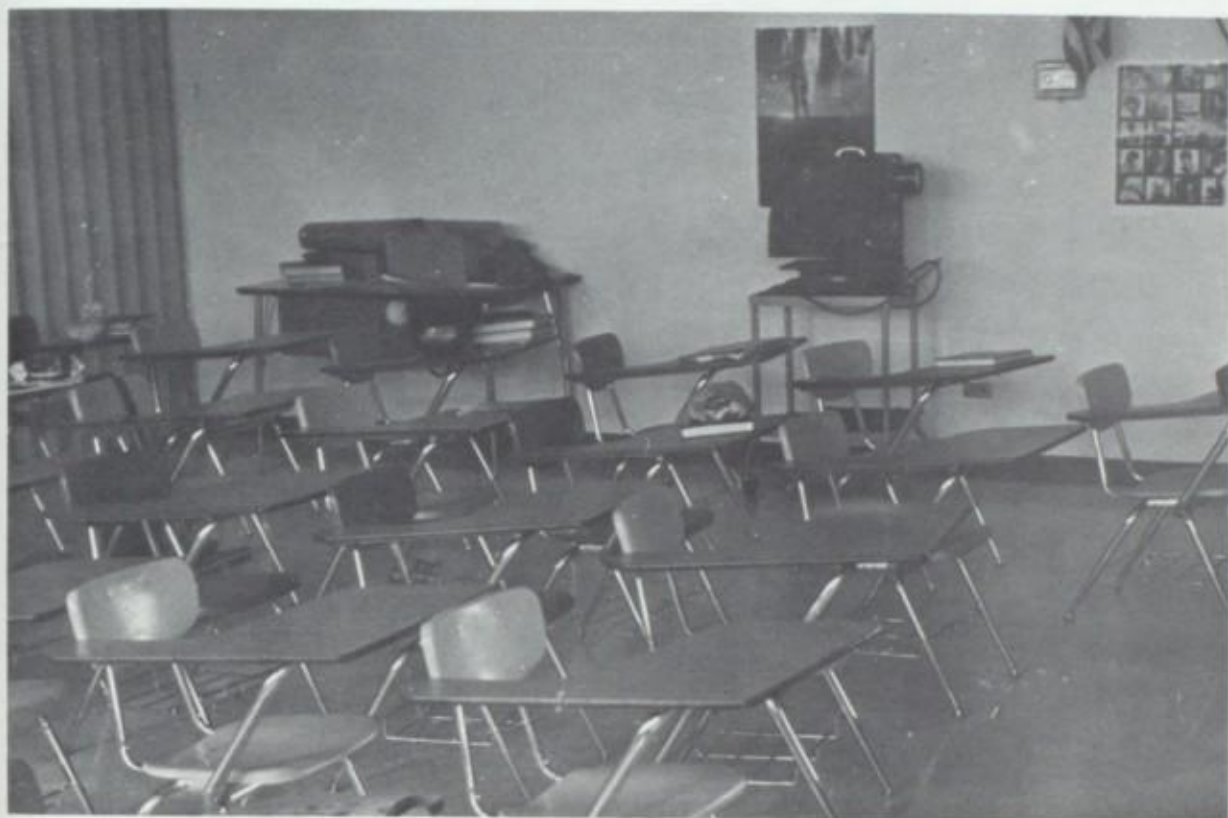

Walt Whitman

Constantly wondering if language and affection
Are real emotions and what if they should prove unreal?

The doubts of day and night, the curiosity of the living and the dead.

Whether it matters that we were or are we merely flasties and specks?

J.S.M.

These became part of that Youth who went forth every day.
And who now goes, and will always go forth every day.

Walt Whitman

What now?
all these years spent struggling within my cocoon,
fighting, fearing,
waiting for a birth of freedom and now I find it has unfolded easily and gently,
in its own time,
and I stand motionless — hypnotized
by the beauty and colour
of my new freedom wings.

Joni Gerser

Laughter, tears, smiles,.... the essence of uncertainty, all reflect the presence of Youth.

Disappointments, concern, achievements and newfound pride represent our learning experiences.

Dominance, power, perseverance and humility are the things that denote our individuality.

Youth in all its eminence prevails....

Yet, when the time comes to part,
we all suddenly grow much older....
